Voices Magazine

From the student editors and team

Hey bisons! Before I continue, I would like to acknowledge that BHS resides on the unceded territory of the Kahnawake people. As a community, we respect and honor those who have come before us, while recognizing the harm that was brought upon them. We recognize that the land we use for our education was stolen and as a community, BHS will continue to credit and respect those who were forcefully removed from their homes. Now, Voices Magazine is inviting the BHS community to submit a piece of writing on your perspective of truth and reconciliation or the impact of Red Dress Day and Orange Shirt Day. If this is of interest to you, then submit your writing to the Voices team through Ms Cochrane at mcochrane@lbpearson.ca and she will forward it to us. Submissions must be no more than 250 words and can be poetry, an opinion article or a non-fiction piece as well as art that represents any of these events.
