

TUESDAY

It is February 4, and it is Day 6

FROM THE OFFICE:

Today in honor of Black History Month we remember Mathieu Da Costa, the first person of African heritage known to have come to what is now Canada arrived over 400 years ago was not a slave. In 1604, Mathieu Da Costa arrived with the French explorers Pierre Du Gua De Monts and Samuel de Champlain.

Da Costa was a multilingual interpreter who spoke English, French, Dutch, Portuguese, and Pidgin Basque. He provided an invaluable link with the Mik'maq people encountered by the Europeans.

Peer tutoring: We are still in need of three English, Two French and one Math peer tutor. If you are in grades 9-11 and are interested in volunteering your time one day a week after school, please email Ms. Pat or write your name and email on the bulletin board outside her office.

The library is closed today.
