EDDI:

Today is Red Dress Day. It is a day of remembrance and awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Two-Spirit People. On this day, red dresses are hung in public spaces to honour the lives lost and to stand in solidarity with their families and communities. The red dress has become a powerful symbol of the missing, representing both the absence and the spirit of those taken. We honour this day to acknowledge the ongoing injustices faced by Indigenous people and to commit to truth, reconciliation, and meaningful change.

Please join us in the main lobby during both lunch periods for the Red Dress Day Bake Sale and an opportunity to learn more about this important day. The money raised will be donated to the Moose Hide Campaign. A grade seven entrepreneur project team organized this event.

ACTIVITIES:

Congratulations to the Feminine Forward entrepreneur project team for winning first place at the Osentrepreneurs Regional competition. Good luck at the National level of the competition!
