

WEDNESDAY

It is May 7, and it is Day 6

FROM THE OFFICE:

Attention Graduates: Please check your emails for the link to reserve your Convocation gown. If you have any questions, please come to the main office.

A resident of Beaconsfield who is a senior citizen is looking for assistance with her garden. If anyone is looking for part time work, she would love your help as soon as possible. Please email Ms Pat if you are interested.

Student Ambassadors: Calling all grade 7 students. If you would like to be a student Ambassador for the upcoming school year, please add your name to the sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in the cycle 1 office area. Those volunteering will need to come to school the morning of August 28th and help out all day on August 29th, the new grade 7's first day of school.

Music: Attention all grade 9 music students: Full band rehearsal at lunch today. Line up at 12:10 with your instrument. This is our only full band rehearsal before our concert.

STUDENT LIFE:

GMAA:

Congrats to the grade 7 bantam flag football team on another big win yesterday at Lakeside. Great effort on both sides of the ball! Keep up the good work.

Defacto Shirts; If you played on a GMAA team this year and did not collect your t-shirt please see Mr McCurdy in the A-gym. This is the last call!

ACTIVITIES:

Drama: All Drama students must meet in front of the school at 12:00 noon for the field trip today. Bring your lunch and your water bottle. Do not be late.

Mother's Day Sale: Tomorrow during both lunch periods, come to the front entrance of the school to purchase handmade magnets, pins, plants, and treats. Profits will be donated to the On Rock Food Bank and support the garden project. Come quickly to get something for your mom before they run out! Prices range from $2.00 to $8.00.
