

THURSDAY

It is May 8 and it is Day 1

FROM THE OFFICE:

Attention Graduates: Please check your emails for the link to reserve your Convocation gown. If you have any questions, please come to the main office.

Please note that any water-related toys or equipment is not permitted in the school or on school property. This includes goggles, floaties, water guns etc. If a student is found with any of these things, they will be confiscated.

A resident of Beaconsfield who is a senior citizen is looking for assistance with her garden. If anyone is looking for part time work, she would love your help as soon as possible. Please email Ms Pat if you are interested.

Student Ambassadors: Calling all grade 7 students. If you would like to be a student Ambassador for the upcoming school year, please add your name to the sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in the cycle 1 office area. Those volunteering will need to come to school the morning of August 28th and help out all day on August 29th, the new grade 7's first day of school.

MUSIC:

TRIPS:

STUDENT LIFE:

GMAA:

Congrats to the Bantam grade 7s girls flag football team on their win yesterday against Westwood, a big team effort. They are a perfect 3-0. The fun continues today on the back field against Lakeside!

Congratulations to the Cadet grade 9 girls flag football team on their win yesterday against Westwood, this team is also 3-0. Well done Bisons!

Field Lacrosse: the roster for the home game tomorrow will be posted on Google classroom later this afternoon. Email Mr Legault as soon as possible if you know that you are unavailable for the game, need to know before the roster is made. More info will be posted check it out.

DeFacto Shirts; If you played on a GMAA team this year and did not collect your t-shirt please see Mr McCurdy in the A-gym. This is the last call!

ACTIVITIES:

Mother's Day Sale! Today, at lunchtime, at the front entrance of the school. Gifts include pins, magnets, and plants. We also have a few treats!