

FRIDAY

It is June 6 and it is a Day 3

FROM THE OFFICE: Happy last day of classes! Please remain in your classes or sign out at the office.

Remember to empty your locker and keep your lock for next year.

On exam days, you can bring a lock and use lockers in designated areas to store items if necessary.

Guidance: Every year BHS welcomes new student registrations across different grade levels. Would you like to be a tour Guide for the New Student Orientation in late August? If so, see Ms Miller in the Guidance office or email her at smiller08@lbpearson.ca

Marley:

Since today is the last day of school, We are here for one final morning announcements announcement.

Mitchell

As the Class of 2025 gets ready to walk out these doors for the last time, we just want to take a moment to say thank you. To the teachers, staff, and everyone who's helped us along the way—your impact doesn't go unnoticed.

Mitchell:

To our fellow students—whether you're just starting or finishing up—enjoy every moment. These years fly by faster than you think.

Marley:

We're signing off with full hearts and big dreams ahead. Wishing everyone an amazing summer and all the best in whatever comes next.

Mitchell:

This is Mitchell, signing off.

Marley:

And this is Marley, signing off.

All:

Thanks for everything, BHS, we'll miss u!

Do the things!
