Bison Daily News January 16, Day 5

ATTENTION TRACK AND FIELD ATHLETES... our first official practices will start this Tuesday and Thursday after school. Please meet in front of the weight room, ready to workout. This is a MANDATORY PRACTICE!

Rugby: Registration for rugby is open! Students from all grades are welcome to join! No experience, skills or equipment needed! This activity will happen after school every Tuesday from 3:45 pm to 4:45 pm in the A-gym. For more information, see Mr. McCurdy or Mr. Perez.

SWIM TEAM: Great swims from all who attended last week's meet. The next one again on Thursday, with early dismissal at noon. Please check Classroom for your times from last week, as well as filling out the new Google for meets #3-4, which must be filled out THIS WEEK!

Art Club: Calling all artists! Starting this Thursday after school, you will have an opportunity to work on personal projects and enjoy some art making! Come join us in C317.

Voices: We have many important activities to plan as we prepare for green square week (to raise awareness about islamophobia), Black History Month and Multicultural week. If there are any other issues you would like to see the school address please bring your concerns and ideas to the meetings as well! Next meeting is on January 18th in room A301 (both lunches).

Parascolaire Activities and Homework Support: Today is the first day of the parascolaire activities and homework support! There's still space in the following activities: Rugby Essentials, Open Music Room, Board Games and Chess Club, Knitting, Writing, Lego, and Art Club. The calendar is posted outside the main office and the cycle one office. If you have any questions, see Mr. Perez.

Meya Claybourne, Tukur Basheer and Alexander Tavares will say this announcement: Today is Martin Luther King Junior Day. His legacy and teachings remain significant today, as well as his inspirational quotes. Here are three for you to think about today:

“Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, “What are you doing for others”.”

“We may have all come on different ships but we’re in the same boat now.”

“Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.”
