Bison Daily News February 22, Day 5

GMAA CURLING CHAMPIONS: Congratulations to the Bisons Curling team for their big win yesterday against Royal West Academy. Your coaches are sooo proud of each and everyone of you, especially the way you helped and encouraged the less experienced teams. A special mention goes to MVP Natasha Drouin. See you all next season.

U18 Hockey: The team played a great game knocking John Rennie out of the playoffs with 4-1 victory. Liam Kerton was a brick wall in nets, making many incredible saves. The Bisons advance to play St Thomas today! Puck drops at 3 pm at Kirkland arena today.

QUEBEC CITY & TADOUSSAC: You can start giving in forms to Mr. Pinsky in the Drama room (B-106). Missed yesterday's lunchtime meeting? You can see him for forms, or Ms. Jody, or Ms. Hill. Only 12 spots left!! Deadline has been extended to Monday.

PJ Bottoms Day is this Friday! It's your chance to wear your comfortable cozy PJ bottoms and crazy slippers to school. (BHS tops are still required.) The BHS Busy Bakers will have treats available for sale in the Art Gallery at recess and both lunch periods. All proceeds will go to the West Island Cancer Wellness Center.

Help us plant trees! Donate refundable cans and bottles to the Three Tree Project. The donation container is in the front entrance of the school.

Badminton: Congratulations to the BHS Cadet and Bantam teams for playing their first games against John Rennie. Way to go! Practice on Thursday morning 7:30am in the F-Gym.
